CANADA WILL CARE FOR DISABLED MEN

Canada has fixed, by an order in ouncil, the rates of pay and allowances for discharged soldiers and sallors undergoing treatment in sanitoriums and hospi als. With a few variations, the pay will be the same as that which the man received in active service. Dependents will receive the militia or naval separation allowance.

Men who, after their return to civilian life, ultimately break down as a cault of their war- ime experiences, will be elig ble to further treatment. Nearly 5,000 soldiers and sallors are nider the care of the Department for oldlers' Civil Re-establishment, the ork of which partices in some degree of that done by the United states War and Labor Departments and the Feleral Vocational Board.
